About the Course

This is a 2-day introductory course on CMR for clinicians (cardiologists, radiologists, physicians-internal medicine), radiographers, CMR physicists and engineers. The course objective is to outline the role of CMR in diagnosis and clinical management of heart disease, including ischemia and heart failure, cardiomyopathies, congenital heart disease, in guiding medical treatment, coronary intervention and the use of medical devices. Lectures, interactive clinical cases, live cases and post-processing sessions will link the theoretical knowledge with the application in the daily clinical routine. Course language is English.

About the Faculty

PD Dr Puntmann, MD,PhD is Deputy Head of Goethe CVI, senior clinical investigator, consultant physician, cardiologist and clinical pharmacologist. She is senior clinical investigator conducting multimodality cardiovascular imaging and clinical trials using imaging biomarkers. She directs departmental clinical research imaging fellowships programmes.

Prof Dr Nagel, MD,PhD is Director of the Institute for Experimental and Translational Cardiovascular Imaging at University Hospital Frankfurt. In 2015, he was appointed DZHK Professor. He leads the Interdisciplinary Cardiovascular Imaging in the Departments of Cardiology and Radiology at the University Hospital Frankfurt, supporting a state-of-the art clinical service and translation of research findings into clinical routine. He is Founding Member and Past President of the SCMR.

PD Dr Rolf, MD is Deputy Director of Cardiology and head of cardiac imaging at Kerckhoff Heart-Centre. He is lecturer on cardiovascular imaging and general cardiology at the University of Gießen. His scientific interests include imaging bio- markers and imaging of pulmonary hypertension.

Dr Heiner Latus, MD is a paediatric cardiologist and CMR Fellow in paediatric and congenital heart disease at the German Heart Centre Munich. His research focuses on CMR on pathophysiology of RV failure, pulmonary hypertension and single-ventricle circulation. He is a member of the German Paediatric Pulmonary Vascular Disease Network AEPC working group in Pulmonary Hypertension and Heart Failure.

Dr Rocio Hinojar, MD, PhD is clinical lecturer in cardiovascular imaging, consultant cardiologist and research coordinator in the Cardiology department at Ramon y Cajal University Hospital, Madrid, Spain. Her research projects focus on the application of novel imaging biomarkers for the detection of cardiovascular disease particularly in the setting of inflammatory cardiac conditions.
